1 Marrakech - Telouat - Ait Ben Haddou - Ouarzazate

Early in the morning, departure from Marrakech by 4x4. From the very beginning of the journey, you will enjoy beautiful landscapes and small terraced villages along the winding mountain road leading to the spectacular Tizi n'Tichka Pass, at 2,260 meters above sea level. Just after the pass, we take a 20-kilometre track through desert hills to reach the village of Telouet and its magnificent Kasbah, once the main residence of the "Lord of the Atlas" – Pasha El Glaoui. The Kasbah once hosted his court, stables, a mosque, and servants, during a time when he ruled over a semi-independent domain stretching from Marrakech to the edge of the Sahara Desert in the east. After a visit to the Kasbah of Telouet, the journey continues through the Assif Ounila Valley before arriving at the famous Ait Ben Haddou, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. We will get out of the vehicle to visit this remarkable historical ksar, built in full respect of traditional earthen architecture: thick walls, impressive towers, and vaulted gates. Many famous films were shot here, including The Mummy, Seven Years in Tibet, and Alexander. On arrival in Ouarzazate, an optional visit to the impressive Atlas Film Studios can be arranged. We then continue with a short visit of the Kasbah Taourirt, a fascinating cultural heritage site with a labyrinth of richly decorated rooms and impressive
